In addition to the "World Vacations," several other 1983 plans are available to Club members at Walt Disney World. Accommodations include the Fort Wilderness Campground Resort, Walt Disney World Village Hotel Plaza and quality hotels nearby the Walt Disney World resort complex. These plans will be similar to those listed in the 1982 Club Membership Guide, with a complete range of prices and lengths-of-stay. Accommodations should be booked as early as possible by calling or writing the Magic Kingdom Club Travel Center. Details on the 1983 plans will be available in September.

"Wonders of Walt Disney World" Makes Learning Fun!

Learning happens everywhere. And for the more than 2,500 young guests who have already participated in "Wonders of Walt Disney World," learning has never been more fun! Disney professionals are the teachers, and the onstage and backstage areas become learning labs as "Wonders of Walt Disney World" organizes the resources of the resort complex into four important courses: creative arts, entertainment, ecology, and energy. The wide array of Disney resources and talents combine to make "Wonders of Walt Disney World" an important and unique addition to a family vacation.

Classes are held daily except for Sundays and holidays. For more information and registration forms, write Magic Kingdom Club Travel Center, P.O. Box 600, Lake Buena Vista, Florida 32830 or you may include "Wonders of Walt Disney World" when booking a Magic Kingdom Club Vacation Plan.
